Statement:

Thirty seven years ago I realized my dream of moving to Alaska, making Juneau my home. I have never regretted that decision. Since I became an Alaskan I have enjoyed many opportunities to serve Alaska in government as well as help our economy grow in the private sector. Now I hope to serve the people of District Q.

My guiding principles are:

- A healthy economy is critical to the people of the district;
- The private sector is the foundation of a healthy economy;
- We need government, but government cannot do everything for everyone, nor should it try; and
- What government does do, it should do very well.

We need to ensure that Juneau remains Alaska's capital and Southeast's economy continues to provide jobs for our families, giving our children the ability to stay in Alaska and raise their own families. Transportation, education and responsible economic development are critical to the health of our communities.

This election is not about what happened yesterday; it is about what we need to do today to ensure a bright future for ourselves and our neighbors.

State budget challenges are daunting and complex. I believe my financial background and my varied experience in government and the private sector, as well as my community service, make me your best choice to be your State Senator for the next 4 years. I hope you will agree and vote for Tom for State Senate, District Q.
